Assessment Appeals Board

Description: The Assessment Appeals Board constitutes the board of equalization for Sonoma County and has the power to equalize the valuation of taxable property within the county for the purpose of taxation, as provided by applicable law.

Authority: Board of Supervisors: Resolution No. 55577, 11/01/76; Resolution No. 68444 (12/16/80); Ordinance 2061 (6/8/1976) – Board of Supervisors

Duties: Conduct hearings on Assessment Appeals.

Significant accomplishments during the past year:

- The backlog of assessment appeals has been reduced significantly due to a mutual push by the Board and Assessor’s offices. This is best shown by the average wait time for Applicants to have their appeals scheduled before the Board reducing from around 12 to 6 months.

- In 2014, over 1000 appeals were scheduled before the Board and over 95% were resolved before going to a hearing. There has been a general upward trend of positive feedback from Applicants to the Clerk regarding the appeals experience.

- In collaboration with County Counsel and the Assessor’s office, the revised Sonoma County Local Rules were finalized and adopted in 2014. The rules replaced the previous revision adopted in 1995 and brought this major project to completion.

Challenges for the upcoming year:

- The main goal in 2015 is to continue to reduce the backlog of appeals. Though it is difficult to predict how many appeals will be filed in 2015, the office is on track to resolve up to 50% of the Fiscal Year 2014-15 appeals filed before the Fiscal Year 2015-16 filing period opens on July 2, 2015.

- We will be working with Megabyte Systems to coordinate the appeals software with the Assessor module, reducing duplication of work and increasing efficiency.

- When the Megabyte system is fully operational, we aim to continue improving the appeals process and the taxpayer experience by working towards an online filing system.

Any additional comments for the Board of Supervisors:

In 2015, the Assessor’s office predicts that property values will continue to rise, and that Sonoma County residents whose properties are currently in a “Proposition 8 Decline in Value” status may experience an increase in property taxes on their Fiscal Year 2015-16 tax bill. If taxpayers disagree with the enrolled value of their property, the 2015 regular filing period is July 2 through November 30, 2015.

Authority: Board of Supervisors: Ordinance #4625, Ordinance #5870 Amends Article XXII of Chapter 2 of the Sonoma County code relating to the Commission on Human Rights.

Duties: Promote better human relations among all people in Sonoma County through education, mediation, cooperation with County and community agencies, and by initiating action that fosters the recognition of and an appreciation for the cultural diversity of the community.

Significant accomplishments during the past year:

- Provided a well-populated forum for Sheriff Steve Freitas to inform the public about his office’s Immigration Detainer/Interim Policy as it applied to the Trust Act

- Created and kicked off the DREAMers Documentary and Multi-Media project, which celebrates the accomplishments of the many thousands of young people in the North Bay who have obtained legal status from the Deferred Action for Childhood Applicants that President Obama announced on June 15, 2012. This project honors the youth of Sonoma County and their potential for enriching our community and building better lives for themselves. KRCB, The Working Group, and the Graton Day Labor Center are active partners in this project.

- Junior Commissioner Project participants attended and acted as moderators at the Youth Forum at the California Association of Human Relations Organizations Regional Conference in San Francisco.

- Created the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer or Questioning, and Intersex (LGBTQI) Task Force to study, report, and make recommendations to the Board of Supervisors on the state of the LGBTQI community in Sonoma County, identifying human rights issues that LGBTQI persons in the county face due to their sexual orientation and/or gender identity, and to further determine the value in creating an independent County of Sonoma LGBTQI Commission to develop and monitor the recommendations of the Task Force and related issues and recommendations as they evolve.

Challenges for the upcoming year:

- Working to find third party sponsors to continue to support the efforts of Commissioner Christopher Kerosky in the production of the DREAMers Documentary and Multi-Media Project

- The Youth Portrait of Sonoma County – Implementing a county-wide youth program in which middle school-aged students participating will create and submit an artistic interpretation of what human rights in Sonoma County looks like (written, auditory, visual).

- Implementing successful outreach programs with limited funding available

Any additional comments for the Board of Supervisors:

The Commission on Human Rights endeavors to encourage others to embrace the diversity within our community, and strives towards improved human relations at all levels, working with both the private and public sector. The Commission is grateful for the Board’s ongoing support.

Commission on the Status of Women

Description: This commission was created by the Board of Supervisors to promote the Board policy to take affirmative action to eliminate the practice of discrimination and prejudice on account of gender in the areas of housing, education, community services, and related fields.

Authority: Board of Supervisors: Ordinance No. 1850 (12/02/75)

Duties: The purpose of the Commission on the Status of Women is to promote equal rights and opportunities that enhance the quality of life for all women and girls and to address issues of discrimination and prejudice that negatively affect women in Sonoma County, including the:

- Prevention of human trafficking
- Eradication of domestic violence
- Encouragement of women's involvement in elected and appointed office
- Prevention of elder abuse
- Mentorship of youth with the Junior Commissioner Project

Significant accomplishments during the past year:

- “Women Creating A Better Tomorrow” – With the goal of aligning with the County’s Health Action goals and the idea of “working together for a healthy Sonoma County,” the commission celebrated the work of three exceptional women who are endeavoring to create a better community for all. The three women – Marie De Santis, Carol Rathmann, and Edie Sussman – were recognized at the November event at which Superintendent of the Santa Rosa City Schools, Socorro Shiels, was the keynote speaker. The event raised over $3000 for the CSW scholarship at the Santa Rosa Junior College that is awarded to adults returning to school.

- “One Billion Rising Revolution” – The commission participated in a global event on February 14, 2015 which seeks to end violence against women. Joined by over a dozen local partners, including the United Nations Sonoma County Chapter, the Family Justice Center, and Guided to Safety, the Commission brought attention to the patriarchal mandate still prevalent in every culture today that results in one out of three women and girls being a victim of rape or violence in their lifetime. Supervisors Gorin and Zane, as well as District Attorney Jill Ravitch addressed a well-turned out audience at this powerful event.

Challenges for the upcoming year:

- Conducting an educational symposium with multiple corporate partners for the women and girls in Sonoma County. Areas of guidance/instruction/services for the symposium include health and wellness, financial literacy, self-defense, elevating women to elected positions, and encouraging sustainable living.

- Creating the bandwidth for two signature events with the afore-mentioned symposium and the second annual One Billion Rising event.
Any additional comments for the Board of Supervisors:

Stepping out of our comfort zone this year and participating in a global movement to end the violence against women was incredibly empowering for the commission, as well as for our junior commissioners. Along the way, we encountered brave women and girls who have survived physical and sexual abuse and continue to come forward to help other victims as they try to heal and move forward. The commission agrees with the prevalent opinion that the One Billion Rising campaigns have truly exposed the volatile and impacting connections between violence against women and economic, environmental, racial, and gender injustice. The Commission on the Status of Women is committed to bringing about change, beginning with our own community. We appreciate your continued support.

Landmarks Commission

Description: The Landmarks Commission designates historic landmarks and districts, reviews development proposals involving historic properties, recommends use of TOT Ad Grant Category D funds and administers the historic resources preservation program.

Authority: Chapter 2, Article VIII (Landmarks Commission) of the Sonoma County Code establishes the Landmarks Commission. Other relevant ordinances and resolutions adopted by the Board: Ordinances 1768, 2497, 4643 and 6020; and Resolutions 52699, 60620, and 64183.

Duties: The Board established the Landmarks Commission with the overall purpose to:

Increase the trade and commerce of the County by encouraging the preservation of historical landmarks as cultural resources of the County.

- Make zoning and historic resource designation recommendations for multi-parcel Historic Districts and individual historic structures. Recommendations also include design guidelines for preservation or compatibility with historic character.
- Conduct design review prior to issuance of building permits within multi parcel Historic Districts and for individual historic structures.
- Review demolition permits for designated historic structures to provide opportunity for the exploration of alternatives to demolition including: public purchase, relocation, private purchase for preservation, change of land use designation to make preservation more economically feasible, etc. For demolition permits, the Landmarks Commission is authorized to:
  - Approve the permit to demolish.
  - Modify the permit to demolish.
  - Suspend the permit for a period not to exceed 180 days.
- Solicit, review, and make recommendations to the Board for the use of the County’s Advertising Grant Category D (Landmarks Commission) funds. Administer grant agreements with grantees and ensure project completion.

Significant accomplishments during the past year:

- Held nine public meetings to review development permits related to Historic Districts or historic structures.
- Reviewed new Historic Resource Surveys funded by Category D Ad Grants:
  - Glen Ellen Commercial Corridor
  - Sonoma Valley
- Reviewed and recommended funding for FY 2014/2015 Category D Ad Grants:
  - Armstrong Woods Pond Farm Docent Program
  - Petaluma Adobe Fort Repairs
• Reviewed and made recommendations on major zoning code updates related to historic preservation to implement new General Plan policy adopted in 2008.

• Reviewed process improvements related to:
  o Ad Grant Application & Process
  o Concept Design Review Process
  o Website Redesign

Challenges for the upcoming year:

• Establishing incentives for property owners of historic resources.

• Organizing historic resource data and improving accessibility including GIS mapping.

• Updating administrative procedures and regulations (some dating back to the 1970’s) to reflect best practices, streamline processing and clarify standards for approval.

• Improve public outreach and build support for historic preservation.

Any additional comments for the Board of Supervisors:

The Historic Preservation Program has been staffed only part time by a Planner. This has resulted in the deferral of many needed program improvements and updates. The program could benefit greatly with the allocation of a full time Planner, even if only for a limited period of one or two years, in order to catch up on deferred maintenance dating back to the 1970’s. Paid internships utilizing graduate students from Sonoma State’s Cultural Resources Management Program could also help with establishing best practices for the County’s program. Participation in the State’s Certified Local Government Program (as authorized by the Board) could provide additional grant funding, technical expertise, and information management tools that would catalyze the updating of the County’s Historic Preservation Program.

Incentives to property owners are needed to make this program more effective and gain support for designating additional historic properties as County Landmarks. Without such designation, many potentially eligible historic properties are demolished or significantly altered such that their historic character is lost. Of the over 2,300 properties in the County’s Historic Resource Inventory, only 425 are protected by Historic District (HD) zoning or County Landmark designation. Incentives could include re-establishing the Mills Act property tax reduction program, and a greater Transient Occupancy Tax allocation for the Category D Advertising Grant Program (reduced from $50,000 to $28,000 in recent years). Process improvements such as Historic Design Guidelines and Standards for individual structures outside of the five Historic Districts are also needed to streamline permitting costs and possibly reduce the need for individual Historic Resource Evaluation reports that often cost several thousand dollars per structure. For example, if such guidelines were available and projects submitted that clearly complied, minor alterations could be approved at the staff level quickly at a reduced permit cost. Better use of existing historical records and the continued funding of new and updated multi-parcel area Historic Resource Surveys with Historic Context Statements could also reduce costs to applicants because the need for such study on a case by case basis as permits came in could be eliminated or reduced. The availability of updated Historic Resource Surveys with Historic Context Statements coupled with Historic Design Guidelines would result in more certainty and consistency in the permit review process.

The unique charm and historic character of many of Sonoma County’s unincorporated communities is a tremendous tourist draw. Heritage tourism is a growing sector of the tourist economy which is a major contributor to the County’s economy. Owners of historic resources are hit heavily with the expense of maintaining aging structures and the additional historic report and permit processing costs related to historic design review. Establishing incentives to owners of historic properties to encourage additional historic designations and appropriate building alterations would also benefit the public in general and the local economy. Allocating resources to prolong the retention of historic buildings will result in better preservation of the County’s unique historic and scenic character and quality of life for both residents and visitors.

Library Commission – outside agency with some appointments made by the Board of Supervisors

Description: Joint Powers Agreement Board for the provision of library services county-wide.

Authority: Joint Powers Agreement for the County-Wide Provision of Library Services by the Sonoma County Library as approved by the County and all 9 cities (effective August 1, 2014)

  - Director Evaluation
  - Finance
  - Public Relations
  - Revenue Enhancement

  - The Library Commission appreciates the Sonoma County Board of Supervisors support for Measure M. Measure M did not pass with 63.3% voting Yes.

Challenges for the upcoming year:

The Budget: The Sonoma County Library System and Commissioners continue to look for ways to increase funding to meet the budget short fall so all branches in the system can again be open full hours including Mondays. Currently, all branches are closed on Mondays.

Any additional comments for the Board of Supervisors:

The Library Commission hopes to continue to work with the Sonoma County Board of Supervisors on solutions to fully fund our library system. All ages in our community use our libraries. Students utilize the system to do homework. Many adults use the libraries for finding jobs and increasing literacy skills now that adult education programs have all been defunded expect the Petaluma Adult School. Families come to their library to provide their children with reading opportunities. The community as a whole comes to their local branch for meetings and lectures. Our libraries are increasing becoming educational institutions for adults and children where classes are taught.

98% of the Library’s funding comes from property taxes. During the Great Recession, the significant decline in property tax revenue resulted in cuts to the book budget, unpaid employee furloughs, benefit reductions, unfilled staff vacancies, and a 25% cut in library hours. Our library system now has one of the lowest per capita library expenditures in the state.

Sonoma County Library serves nearly 500,000 residents with 11 full-service branches, two rural stations, a specialized Wine Library and a renowned Genealogy and Local History collection.
Approximately 2 million people visit our libraries each year, checking out over 3 ½ million books, DVDs, audio books, and eBooks. 62,000 children attend story times, events, and educational classes annually.

The Sonoma County Employees’ Retirement Association (SCERA) engaged The Results Group to assist in the development of this multi-year Strategic Plan. Through a robust information gathering and analysis process, SCERA and the Consultant received valuable input from SCERA’s members, participating employers, affiliated organizations and the community. We used this input to inform our discussions with the SCERA Board of Retirement and SCERA Staff and developed broad goal areas covering the key functions in administering a public sector defined benefit retirement plan. Those key functions were further refined into goals and initiatives during SCERA’s Board and Staff planning sessions.

The key to a successful Strategic Plan is for collaboration between the Board and Staff (Team SCERA) to ensure the goals and initiatives focus on the most important functions of plan administration. To that end, Team SCERA spent many hours together analyzing the various elements of successful plan administration and collectively arrived at the goals and initiatives that make up this plan. Our goal is to continue this process on a regular basis to ensure the plan remains dynamic and appropriately focused.
About the Sonoma County Employees’ Retirement Association

What We Do

SCERA is a public employee defined benefit retirement system that was established by the County of Sonoma on January 1, 1946, under the authority of the County Employees Retirement Law of 1937. SCERA is administered by the Board of Retirement (Board) to provide retirement, disability, death, and survivor benefits for eligible employees of the County of Sonoma; Valley of the Moon Fire District; the Superior Court of California for the County of Sonoma; and other Sonoma County public agencies.

Under the direction of a ten member Board, of which one is an alternate member, SCERA Staff manages the day-to-day administration of the system. This includes ensuring timely and accurate payment of benefits, oversight of the investment of trust assets, providing information to and counseling members, accounting for contributions and investment income, maintaining prudent regulations, policies and procedures, and ensuring the Board is fulfilling its fiduciary duty to the members and their beneficiaries.

The Board sets the policy direction for the system, provides direct oversight of the Retirement Administrator as SCERA’s chief executive, approves the investment program’s asset allocation in accordance with the system’s defined risk parameters, and carries out its fiduciary duties through regular meetings and oversight of the system’s operations. The Staff is managed by the Retirement Administrator who oversees SCERA’s Investment, Member Services, Finance and Retiree Services, and Information Technology divisions.

Implementation and Accountability

Implementation

A strategic plan is only valuable if it impacts the organization’s decision-making and day-to-day behavior. To do that, SCERA is developing an Annual Business Plan, with specific tasks and deadlines to implement the strategic initiatives over the first 12 months. Staff will continue to develop Business Plans annually to ensure SCERA is moving towards its strategic goals and initiatives. Furthermore, since all Staff and Board members were extensively involved in development of this Plan (including the overall strategic direction, as well as the strategic goals and initiatives), it is now embedded in the culture and daily organizational decision making of Team SCERA.

Accountability

The Annual Business Plan provides for accountability at three levels:

1. Management: on a monthly basis, the Retirement Administrator will review progress toward the goals and timelines set forth in the Annual Business Plan.

2. Board: on a semi-annual basis, the Board will review progress toward the goals and timelines set forth in the Annual Business Plan.

3. Public: members of the public are invited to attend the Board meetings at which progress reports are presented, and to review progress reports posted on SCERA’s website.

On an annual basis, or more frequently if necessary, Team SCERA will review and discuss the Strategic Plan to ensure its goals and initiatives remain relevant, and will revise the Plan accordingly.
