It is the department’s responsibility to reconcile the credit card receipts. A daily reconciliation report is generated when the terminal is batched out and a monthly reconciliation statement is issued by the credit card provider. The department is responsible for reconciling credit card transactions to their two reports.

Establish departmental procedures for safeguarding cardholder information as well as maintaining compliance with PCI DSS – Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard regulations.

The Department Head/designee is responsible for compliance with all requirements of this policy.

B. Treasury Division:

The Treasury Division is responsible for approving and assisting departments in implementing credit card operations and serving as a contact between department personnel and Bank of America Merchant Services.
Establish a Bank of America account for each approved department to be used by Bank of America Merchant Services as a depository account for all payments processed via credit cards.

Process the transfer of funds between the departments’ Bank of America account and the Treasury’s main account. The Treasury will also complete the deposit authorization, if requested.
