Parent/Guardian/Teacher Permission

Students will need to report to their assigned Vote Center at 6 a.m. on Election Day (8 a.m. on early voting days) and stay until the polls are closed and all supplies are packed into the inspector's car (approximately 9:30–10 p.m. on Election Day and 6 p.m. on early voting days). Students are given lunch and dinner breaks plus short breaks throughout the day as needed. Students will receive a $160 stipend, $240 on Election Day, for serving at a Vote Center.

Because the Registrar of Voters requires parental/guardian and teacher/counselor permission, and does not assume responsibility for the minor, we ask you to sign below to authorize the minor's participation. By signing this application, you, the parent/guardian and teacher/counselor, affirm that the facts set forth in it are true and complete. Please call the Registrar of Voters at (707) 565-6816 if you have any questions.

I understand that my signature affirms that my child/student can serve on Election Day from 6 a.m. to 9:30 - 10 p.m. (8 a.m. – 6 p.m. on early voting days) and meets the requirements listed above. I have carefully checked their school/activity schedule to make sure there are no other conflicting activities to prevent them from serving as a Student Poll Worker.
