Public Comment at Community Advisory Council Meetings

Members of the public are free to address the CAC. Public comments:

- Should fall under the subject matter jurisdiction of the CAC (as noted in the founding documents).
- Are time-limited. Time limitations are at the discretion of the Chair and may be adjusted to accommodate all speakers.

In addition to oral public comment at the meetings, the community is also invited to communicate with IOLERO staff and CAC members through email. Members of the public who would like to make statements that may exceed the time limits for public comment, suggest topics to be placed on future agendas, or suggest questions to be raised and discussed by CAC members or staff, may send an email addressing these matters to cac@sonoma-county.org

CAC members may not deliberate or take action on items not on the agenda, and may only listen and respond briefly in limited circumstances. Should CAC members wish to deliberate on an issue raised during public comment, that issue may be placed on a future agenda of the CAC for discussion and possible action. Materials related to an item on this Agenda submitted to the CAC after distribution of the agenda packet are available for public inspection in the IOLERO office at the above address during normal business hours or via email.

Commitment to Civil Engagement

All are encouraged to engage in respectful, non-disruptive communication that supports freedom of speech and values diversity of opinion. We, the members of the CAC, have adopted a list of norms referred to as our “Designed Team Alliance”, which describes the way we want to show-up and be in community while modeling collaborative behavior. We request that CAC members, staff, and the public follow the CAC’s agreed upon norms, which are:

- Be tough on the topic not on people
- Respect all participants in the meeting
- Respect others’ perspective, even when you disagree
- Respect each other’s time
- Stay within the meeting’s time and content parameters
- Practice active listening
- Listen with an open mind to all information, including dissenting points of view
- Speak to others as you would like to be spoken to
- Allow others to speak without comment or intrusive sounds
- Honor freedom of speech
- Call each other “in”

- District 2

4. CORRESPONDENCE ITEMS

Chair Barrera announced correspondence items related to Agenda Item 7 were received by staff and shared with CAC members.

5. DIRECTOR'S REPORT

Director Alden reported on the NACOLE conference, which will be taking place in Tucson, Arizona this year. All of IOLERO staff will be attending from October 13-17. Some CAC members will be attending the NACOLE conference as well. The IOLERO annual report is almost complete and the electronic version should be available by the next CAC meeting. The annual report was going to be presented at the Board of Supervisors on October 22nd, however it's now been rescheduled for early December. IOLERO plans to host a virtual town hall regarding the annual report with time for questions and answers. The community will have the opportunity to email questions in advance. Director Alden also reported there is not much that can be shared about pending cases such as the Pelaez-Chavez case. Director Alden stated that he would not be able to report on the subpoena litigation related to the Whistleblower complaint until the next CAC meeting in November.

Questions asked during the IOLERO Director's report that the CAC members wish to receive responses to at the November meeting:

- Are you not running out of time regarding the Pelaez Chavez independent investigation?
- Does the Sheriff's Office have to agree with IOLERO regarding the law extenders?
- Why do the Letters of Agreement (LOA's) supercede voter intent?
- Would possible appeals have to be based on procedure during the decision or additional information?
- What could support the grounds for an appeal?

Public Comment: No member of the public addressed the IOLERO director

6. SHERIFF'S LIAISON REPORT

Lt. Jones announced that this would be his last CAC meeting due to his work assignment rotation ending after a 2-year term. He introduced Lt. Brent Kidder, who will be the new CAC Sheriff Liaison.
